Health Insurance · GI Segment Gross Premium ·
FY18–FY26 · 9/9 ready

9 cells selected · 9 ready

QUICK READ

- GI Segment Gross Premium rose from ₹37,712 cr (FY18) to ₹1,37,144 cr (FY26).
- That is +₹99,433 cr (+263.66%) across 9 periods.
- The biggest single move was FY25→FY26 (+₹18,287 cr).
- This reads as a sharp multi-period expansion, not a flat trend.
- All 9 selected cells are ready, so conviction is high for this selection.

FORMULA

Growth % = $(\text{End} \div \text{Start} - 1) \times 100 = +263.66\%$

CAGR = $(\text{End} \div \text{Start})^{(1/8)} - 1 = +17.5\%$ (8 yrs)

GWP is total premium booked — a scale measure, not profit.

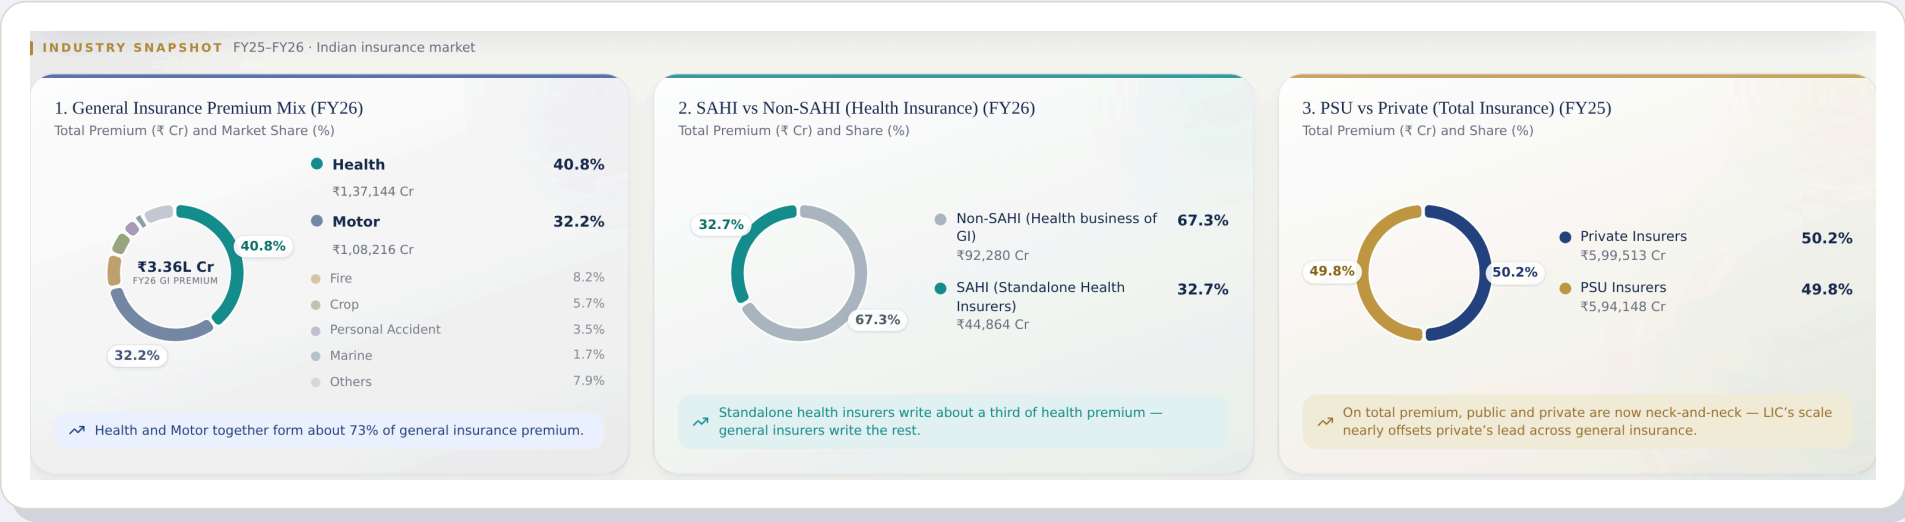

SECTION 3 / 3

Refined & verified

The earlier requests - all delivered, re-verified, and freshly captured on the latest build.

Life insurance removed from the industry view

The industry snapshot now reads purely on general insurance - no life premium blended in.

A general-insurance pie, split by segment

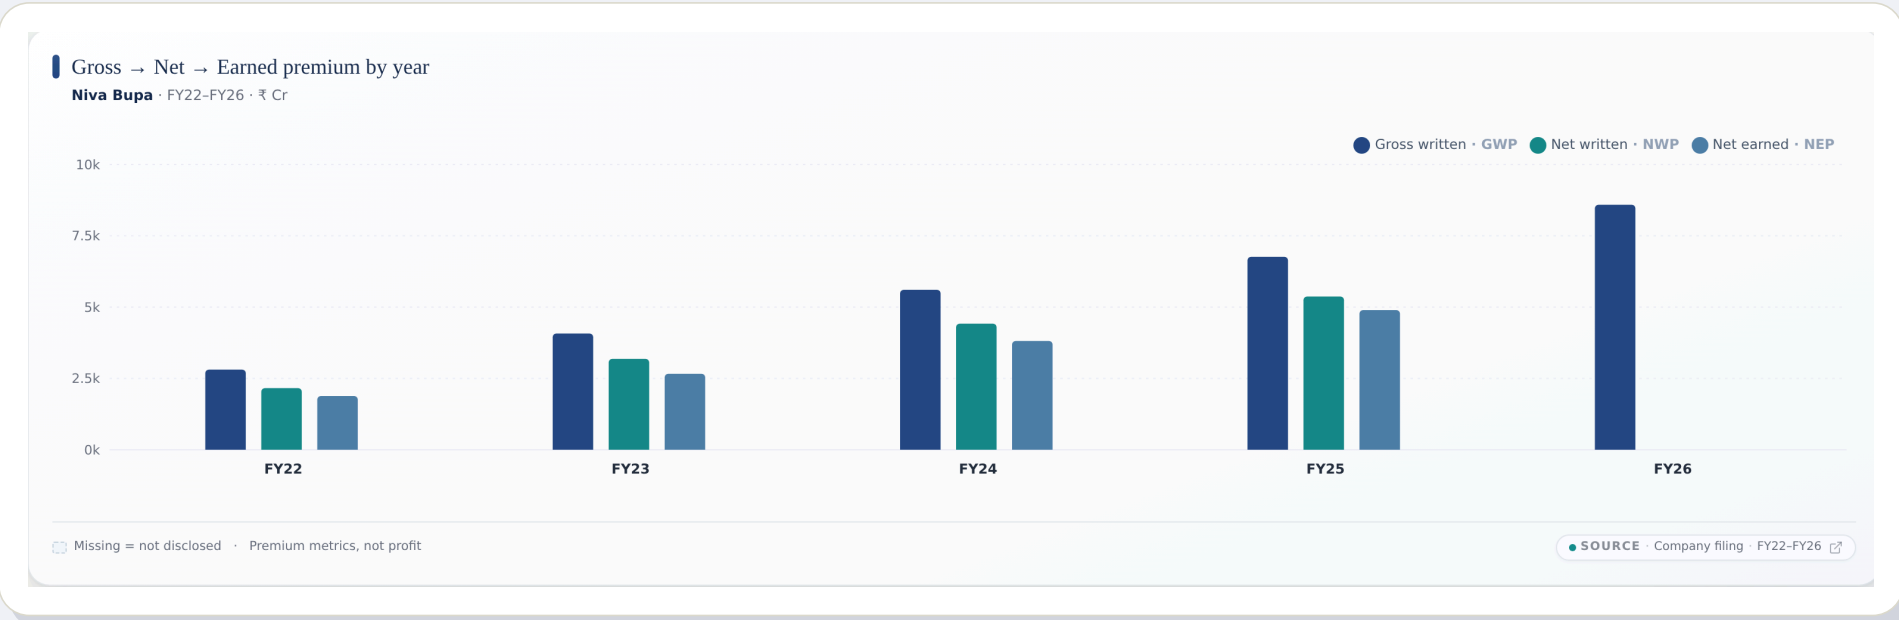

Health and Motor lead the pool - about 73% together - across seven segments, values on the ring.

Now on FY26 - the 2026 reporting year

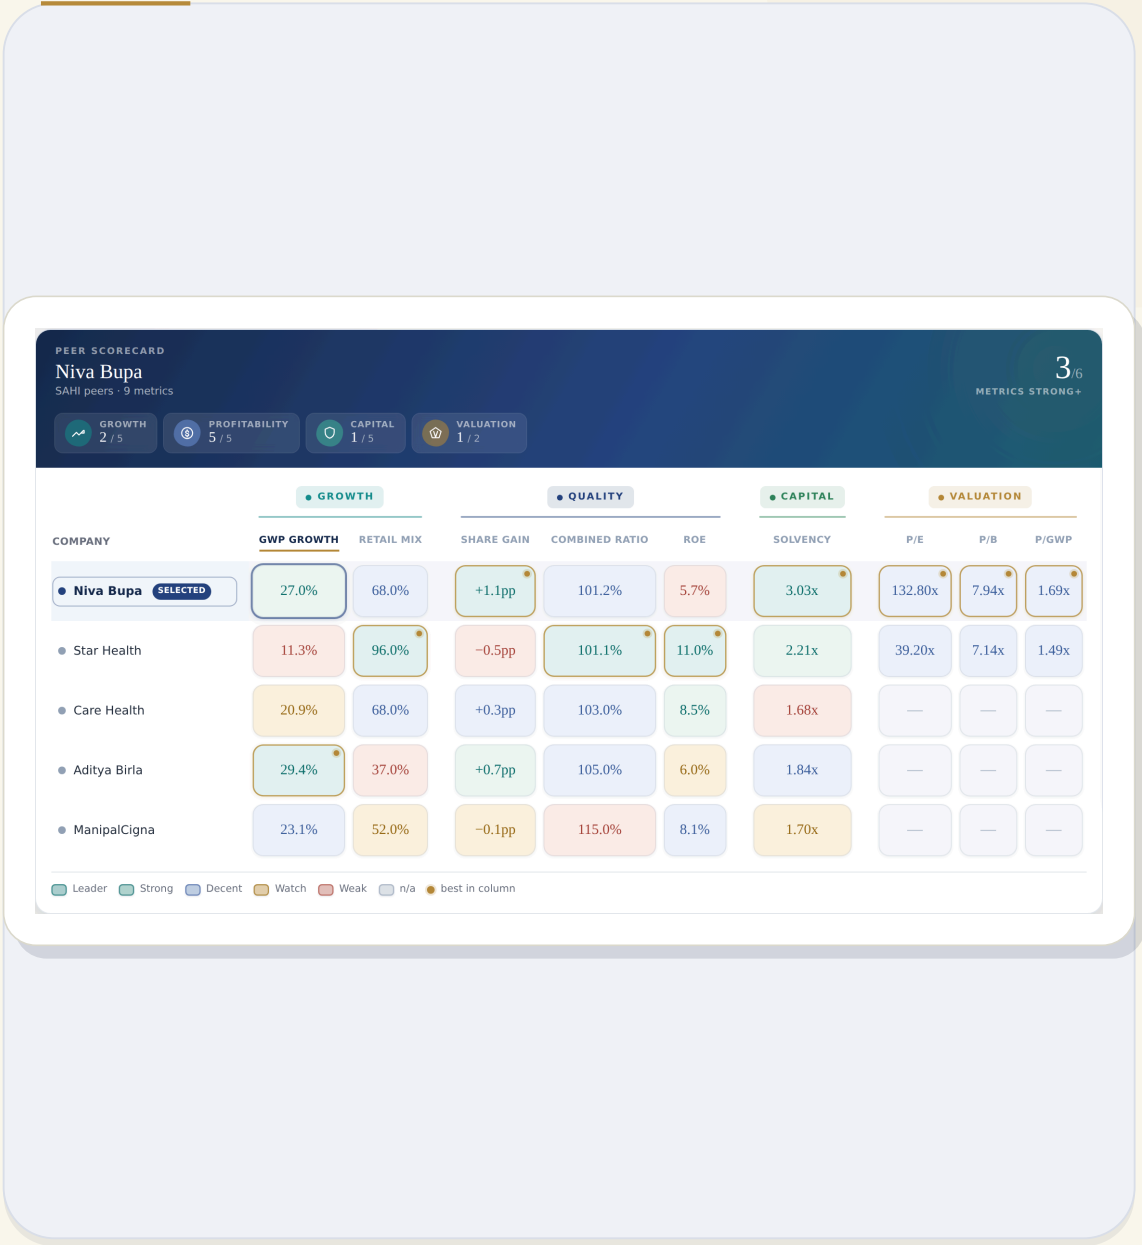

The dashboard's headline figures are updated to FY26 (2026), the latest published year.

ALL FIGURES · FY2026

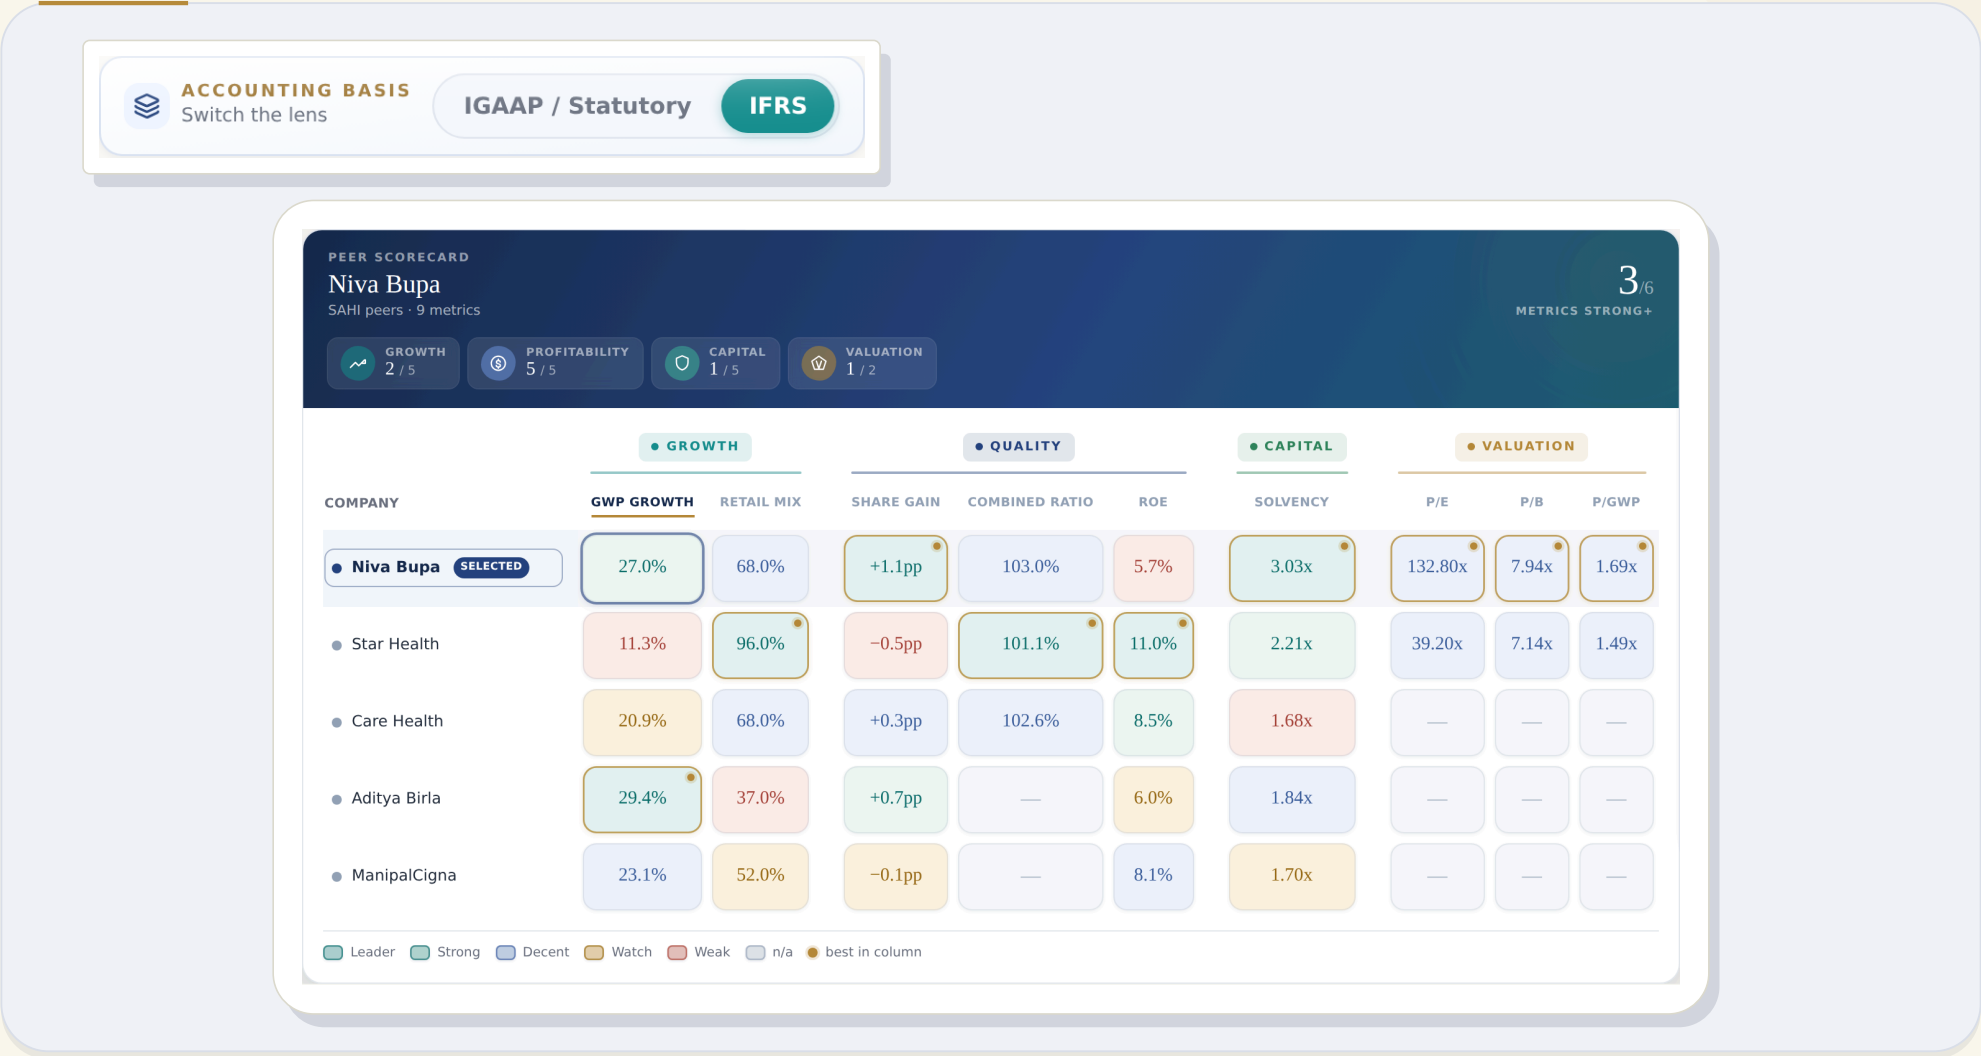

Star Health, fully visible

Star Health is a complete row in the peer scorecard - every metric populated, no blanks.

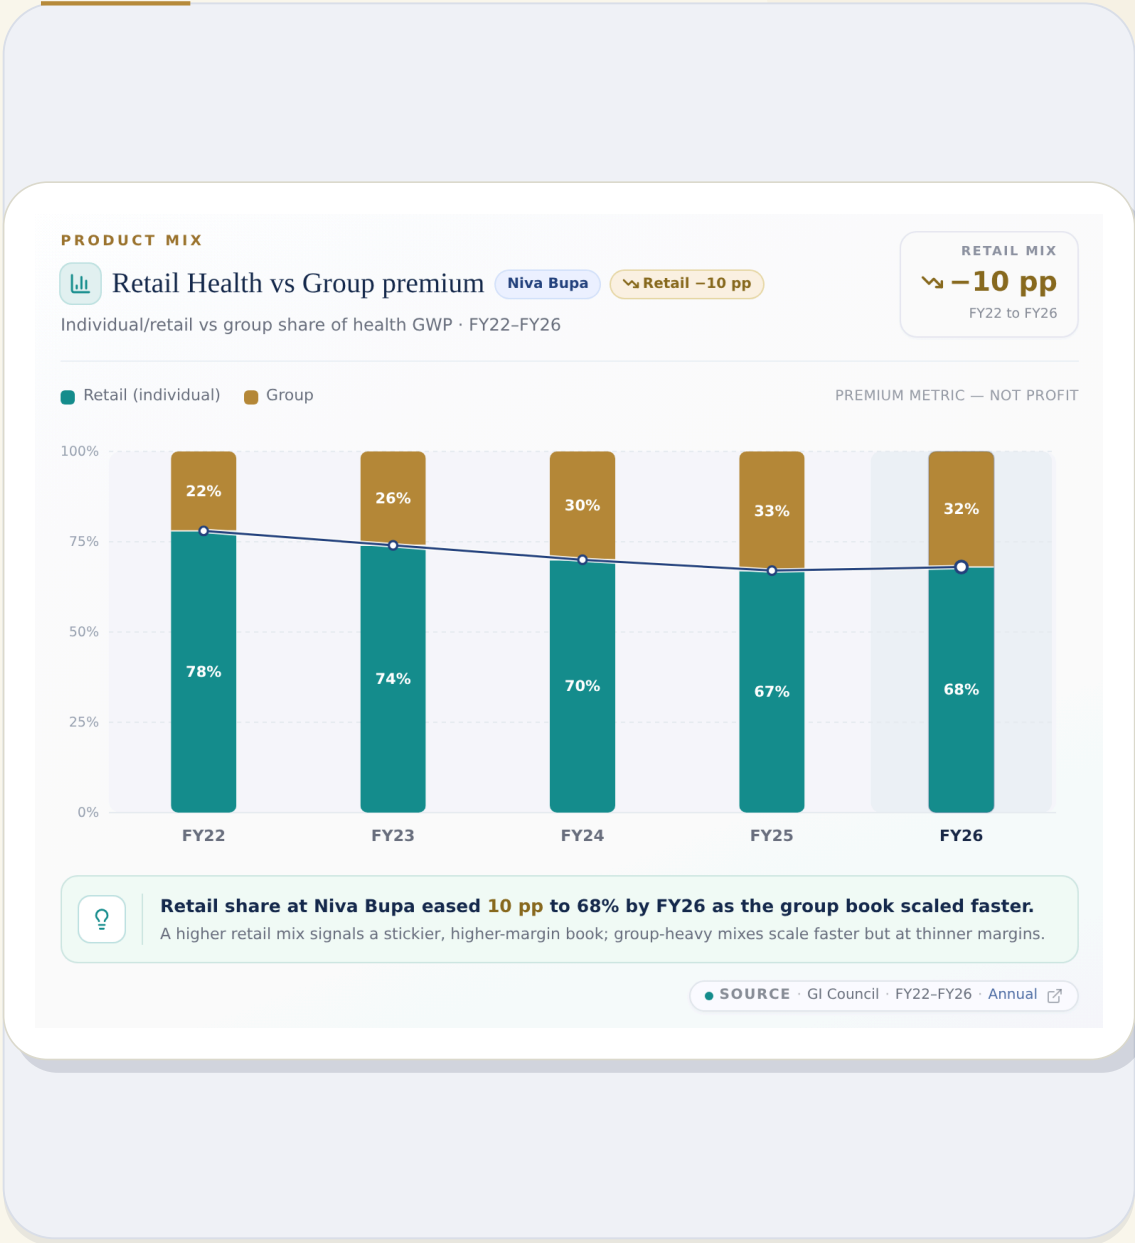

One-click IGAAP / IFRS toggle

Switch the lens: the combined ratio restates to IFRS for insurers that publish it; others stay clearly marked.

The retail-mix conflict, resolved

One derived figure now feeds every surface, so the old 67% vs 88-96% split is gone.

"60% delivered" - the exact 3 of 5
